

Associate Membership Information Sheet

Associate membership is available to:

- Individuals who meet credential requirements for membership, but who are not currently employed in an administrative or supervisory position
- Administrators who are reassigned to the classroom or other duties outside of administration
- Educational consultants
- Professors of education (may opt for Associate or Regular Membership)
- California Dept. of Education (CDE) or Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) employees (may opt for Associate or Regular Membership)
- Individuals who are employed part-time under an early retirement program
- Former ACSA members not qualifying under other membership categories

Associate members receive:

- Up-to-the-Minute email notification on State and Federal budget issues that impact K-12 funding, and have access to a thriving online community
- Weekly updates on administrative job openings through the online Career Center
- EdCal, ACSA's weekly newspaper, which includes educational best practices, position papers, legislation/policy updates, information on upcoming events, and the ACSA JobLink, a listing of education job openings throughout California and the nation.
- Leadership Magazine, 5 issues a year of the association's professional magazine, featuring research based articles by practicing administrators and educational experts.
- Member rates to attend ACSA's Professional Development programs, academies, and trainings offered in small and large group settings throughout the year, including the Leadership Summit
- ACSA member benefits, including group insurance plans,
- Limitations: Associate members may not vote or hold Association office, nor are they eligible for Professional Legal Assistance.

ACSA Membership – an investment in YOU and in education!

Your Membership Team Representative
Association of California School Administrators
Phone: (619) 504-3512
Email: dburke@acsa.org