

association of california
school administrators

region 19

ACSA Region XIX presents its 2017 Spring Professional Development event:

Images of Possibilities: How to Create Empathic, Caring, Respectful Schools--and Why We Must

Presented by internationally-renowned author and speaker, Dr. Michele Borba.

March 1, 2017

5:00-7:30 PM (Dinner will be provided)

Hemet Unified School District

Professional Development Center

1791 W. Acacia Ave

Hemet, CA 92545

MEMBERS AND PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND

Bring a non-member and get an extra door prize ticket!

Early Bird Registration: $10 when you register by February 14th

February 15th - 24th: $15

It is virtually impossible for students to thrive in school when they don't feel safe. Dr. Borba's inspiring and timely address will provide administrators with practical, no-cost solutions that make a difference in student's lives by creating empathic, caring and respectful schools and school districts. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to hear how we can develop quality 21st Century students who lead with both their hearts and minds.

RSVP your attendance by using the EventBrite link. <http://goo.gl/UhrCb8>

If you have questions contact Diane Perez.

phone: 951-929-7700, ext 4202 email: dperez@sanjacinto.k12.ca.us