

ACSA Region 2 Retired Leaders & Managers (R2 RL&M) Charter

Goals:

Have Fun!

- Provide interesting, timely programs at quarterly luncheon meetings & activities
- Provide opportunities for members to renew or initiate new contacts with other retired colleagues
- Honor a “Retired Administrator of the Year”
- Provide opportunities for members to serve students; i.e., reading or speaking at a school, mentoring a child
- Provide opportunities for community service
- Award scholarships and grants to deserving students
- Develop ways to support and assist Districts looking for expertise or to facilitate special programs; i.e, Ambassador Program, Mentor Program, Women’s Leadership Network
- Provide opportunities for members to serve the Charter, Region, & State ACSA
- Continue to strengthen our liaison with Region 2 & other like-minded groups; i.e., contact other retired charters for joint meetings

ACSA Region 2 Retired Leaders & Managers Charter

Retirement does not mean the end of your professional career. ACSA Region 2 offers retired school leaders and managers the opportunity to remain involved in education by becoming a member of Region 2 Retired Leaders & Managers (RL&M) Charter.

Keep in touch with your colleagues and the latest happenings in education by receiving RL&M meeting notices, attending quarterly meetings and outings, supporting new ACSA members through the Ambassador Program, and by lending your experience and expertise to other school administrators.

A more complete listing of Charter goals and opportunities is included on the reverse side.
