What is working within our Current Situation?	Jennifer Sachs (R-6): Pandemic helped with integration of technology into 100% of classrooms. Opportunity to create a framework for digital learning. Nicole Naditz (R-3): Situation has caused practitioners and curriculum teams to create resources that will continue to be valuable when we return to full time, in-person instruction. Rebecca Summers (R-15): Full distance learning. The bell schedule ending at lunch with an office hour after lunch has been helpful to keep consistency. We implemented a "Wellness Wednesday" for kids to engage in social emotional activities, and a collaboration and learning time for teachers. K-12 Canvas has been a challenge but also has helped to streamline the distance learning process for parents. Tandy Taylor (R-17) : increased collaboration and interdependency across multiple levels and organizational units/divisions within a district. Making the impossible possible. Bonnie Mungula (R-18): People are finding it easier to find work/life balance Kim Little (R-2) - Teachers are developing their technological skills by leaps and bounds. The collaborative work has been enriched in during these times. Tasha Doizan (R-12): 7 weeks into online learning. District has 4 phase system. Working on next phase of plan - to

	bring back students back to the physical classroom. Planning for physical space for the most vulnerable groups first. Scott McDowell (R-14): Distance Learning PD and Teacher Tech Support went very well, and feedback from families is that we are doing a significantly better job than in the spring! R8- some districts have had their waivers accepted and plan to open this month. Most districts are working with employee groups to determine if they will be able to open in person program Sarah -Region 11-going well use of leads at each site to support ed tech questions that arise daily. Mary Kahn - Region 13- Common schedule across district to allow for centralized intervention services. Small groups, shorter zoom sessions. Using blend of digital and hard copy materials.

Regional Representation--
Members At Large/Assessment Liaisons	Members At Large/Assessment members: breakout group thought that two (2) assessment reps and might be helpful to clarify responsibilities. Suggested north/south. Whole group discussed changes based on the need at the time as well as Central perhaps three members instead of two. Think about a position related to the IQC. There are a lot of changes going on at the state level and would it be a good idea to have a position connected specifically to this area. Another group suggested that “up to four” assessment which would allow for

Executive Committee for planning--2 openings	Break out groups suggested that we are out of sync with president-elect election timing. Would be a good idea to move the president-elect to the previous year so the pres-elect has a full year in the Council process. Executive Committee/Term: President requested interest in the executive committee? Tandy Taylor, Bonnie Munguia, Dawn Mawhinny, Angel Barrett expressed interest. The group will meet after to discuss Executive Committee configuration.
