Association of California School Administrators

Region 3 Awards

Aspiring Administrators

An Aspiring Administrator is an educator (i.e. teacher or counselor) who aspires to be a school administrator as demonstrated by:

- leadership at their school site
- holds or is in pursuit of a preliminary administrative services credential.
- been an educator for more than three years.

Partners in Educational Excellence (PIEE)

The Partners in Educational Excellence Award is given annually to exemplary, school-community-partnership programs that promote effective educational performance, enhanced student achievement and strong community involvement in educational quality.

This award recognizes the individual leadership and contributions of school administrators, educators and community or business leaders involved in the program. Current ACSA employees and ACSA board members are not eligible to receive this award.

Student Scholarship Winners

Each year, Region 3 awards a number of scholarships (minimum of $500 each) to outstanding college-bound, high-school seniors (or outstanding, continuing-college students). The recipient must be a family member of an active ACSA Region 3 member.
