CALL FOR PROPOSALS - Deadline Extended

Inviting our region's leaders to share their exemplary work and practices

At our Region 6 Conference, we would like to highlight the expertise and best practices of our Region. We want to learn from you and how you are impacting education at your sites or in your districts.

Please use this form to submit your proposal.

Deadline for Submission: February 28, 2025 (NEW DATE)

Theme: Thriving as We Shine-Leading with Heart and Mind

Presenters must choose at least one conference strand for their proposed session:

Thriving as We Shine

- Elevating others
- Celebrating success

Leading with Heart

- Well-being, mental health, resilience, equity
- Servant leadership for all

Leading with Mind

- Organizational capacity
- Strategic thinking and innovation

Guidelines and Procedures for Submitting Proposals

Selection Criteria: We are seeking to elevate and celebrate the good work that is happening in our Region. Proposed presentations will be evaluated on how relevant and practical the presentation will be to our attendees. In addition, presentations will be evaluated on description of clear, measurable learning outcomes. Workshop learning activities should provide opportunities for participants to practice skills identified in the learning outcomes. Proposals should provide evidence to support that the workshop is relevant, timely, and likely to contribute to professional development of attendees.

No sales presentations will be accepted.
