

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION

The Master of Arts in Education (MAE) is designed for individuals seeking career or advancement opportunities in education or related fields. Learning outcomes include: research, democratic principles, global perspectives, learning theory, curriculum design and ethics.

30 credit program: 18 core credits and 12 emphasis credits. Areas of Emphasis include:

- Curriculum & Instruction
- Educational Leadership
- Instructional Technology
- Leadership in Early Childhood Education
- Teaching & Learning

Qualified applicants are eligible to receive up to a $3,600 scholarship!
(*Scholarship prorated at $120 per credit)

*Tuition is subject to change, but the scholarship amount remains at $120 per credit over the life of the program.

Learn more today
800-581-4100
brandman.edu/mae

For more information or to learn more about this unique scholarship offering, please contact us!

Brandman University
3001 Lava Ridge Court, Suite 250
Roseville, CA 95661

RSVP to an Information Session

or call for a presentation at your District or School

Jessica Cone
916-789-6901
cone@brandman.edu

A few facts about Brandman University:

- Established in 1958 as part of the Chapman University System
- Private, non-profit, WASC accredited
- 2nd largest private university producer of teacher credentials
- Two National Teachers of the Year
- Ranked in U.S. News and World Report in both 2012 and 2013
- 26 campuses across California and Washington

CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY SYSTEM