2021-2022

REGION 7
ASSOCIATION of
CALIFORNIA SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS
LEADERSHIP DIRECTORY

Region 7 ACSA webpage: http://regions.acsa.org/7/
It is an honor to be part of ACSA and represent our Region 7 membership as your president for the 2021/22 year. I look forward to working with all of you to continue supporting our advocacy to empower and inspire students, strengthen our ability to support our administrators throughout our region. With the leadership and guidance of ACSA Executive Director, Dr. Wes Smith and ACSA State President, Charles Hoffman, along with the leaders of our region and charter levels, I know we will have a successful year.

As I reflect on 2020, I am deeply humbled and honored to work with such dedicated leaders. You faced this past year with a growth mind set to overcome all the challenges you faced by becoming innovative, creative and out of the box thinkers to see and service our students differently. Even though the year was challenging, we were able to create a new way of servicing students, networking with our colleagues, growing professionally and reaching so many more people. I admire the strength, perseverance and service we all exhibited and provided.

In alignment with state ACSA, our Region 7 leadership theme this school year is “Re-Imagining, Re-Inventing, Re-Designing through Resilient Leadership”. We will also continue to be facilitators of equity and strive for our common purpose of growing and healing in providing equity for ALL. We want to continue creating opportunities to increase the leadership capacity of our administrative teams that encompass our five counties of Amador, Calaveras, San Joaquin, Stanislaus and Tuolumne. We know our ability to learn and to grow as administrators will increase our ability to service and support our students and all staff. We currently have close to 800 ACSA leaders in Region 7 and as we enter this new year, I challenge you to invite a new administrator to join us. We will also focus on getting members to be involved. As small as attending a professional development opportunity to being our Region President. Get involved. We need you. We offer high quality and high-impact leadership and networking opportunities for our Region members.

Throughout the 2021/22 school year both state ACSA and Region 7 will be offering outstanding opportunities to engage, learn and grow. We look forward to returning to “normal” and provide both person and virtual opportunities for all of you. If there is one thing we learned during this pandemic, is that the digital world offered more opportunities for networking. We will continue to offer some opportunities to engage virtually. We will be offering a mini fall conference, women’s leadership summit, spring conference, professional development events, General Membership Assemblies, and the CEL (Classified Educational Leaders) dinner. I strongly encourage our members to participate in these events and to bring another administrator with you as a way to enhance our current collaborative endeavor sand to empower future leadership.

I am deeply humbled to service and work with all of you. I believe strong relationships and collaboration are key to a successful leadership role. Strong relationships create opportunities to make significant impacts for our students and staff. ACSA is the only organization that encompasses the broad spectrum of the Management/Leadership team. I am honored to belong to an organization that has such a major impact on public education.

I look forward to an amazing school year with all of your support.
