

Information

The Filipino American Educators Association of California proudly announces the return of the FAEAC statewide conference. Our state's capitol in downtown Sacramento will be the locale, and the Citizen Hotel will be the venue. The conference will present opportunities for experienced educators to collaborate with those new to the profession while we collectively look to the past in order to determine our future.

K-12 and higher education teachers, administrators at the site and district level, board members, and all support staff in education are invited to attend this festive and educational conference.

This year's conference will include our traditional "Barrio Fiesta," sponsored by San Diego's Filipino American Educators Association in cooperation with New Haven Unified Filipino American Society for Education.

Common Core Curriculum - Incorporating Filipino American Heritage – This session will be an introduction to the Common Core Curriculum and how Filipino Heritage can be used to accomplish mastery. The main focus will be on the use of informational and non-fiction text to enhance student learning and engagement at all levels K through 12. There will also be time for questions to allow for a deeper understanding of this new state curriculum. A more in-depth discussion will happen in the afternoon workshops when participants choose their own pathways.

"No History, No Self...Know History, Know Self" - Created and presented by Mel Orpilla, "No History, No Self...Know History, Know Self" is a visual history of the Filipino American experience from 1587 to the present. Using historical photographs, oral histories and personal stories, the presentation is educational, entertaining, enlightening and empowering. It is a cross-cultural, comparative history of the effects of Spanish colonial rule, American Imperialism and an oppressive American society on the development of the Filipino communities in the United States. It is also a story of overcoming adversity and struggle and the eventual success of the Filipino spirit in their newly adopted homeland.

Filipino Martial Arts – The Filipino Martial Arts (FMA) has a unique connection to Philippine History. This workshop will discuss the various areas that FMA has touched and the influence it has on modern day culture. The systems of FMA that will be presented and demonstrated are Original Giron Eskrima and Tatlong Landas Kempo Kali. The session will include both educational connections as well as authentic learning activities.

Original Giron Eskrima was founded by the late Grand Master Leo Giron. GM Giron was part of the Filipino Resistance during WWII and eventually served as a Filipino Scout with the US Army. GM Giron was highly recognized for his dedication and achievements in FMA and for his service during WWII. His son, GM Michael Giron, carries on the tradition that his father started.

Tatlong Landas Kempo Kali was founded by Professor Ku'e in the tradition of traditional Kempo karate. Professor Ku'e studied under the systems of Hawaiian and American Kempo, Bok Fu Kempo and Kali Eskrima and Villabrille-Laguna Kali. The Tatlong Landas Kempo Kali is now in the contemporary age of Martial Arts which, uses various techniques and movements from different martial arts systems, which are known as Mixed Martial Arts, the philosophy made famous through GM Bruce Lee of Jeet Kune Do and Sijo Emperado of Kajukenbo.

This session will explore ways to integrate FMA into the subject areas of World and US History, Ethnic Studies and Fine Arts.
