Middle Level Leaders Academy

This intensive seven-session academy for new aspiring middle level leaders is designed around taking center state II & the standards for CCTC's Professional Clear Administrative Services Credential non-university programs. The focus is on developing & refining applied leadership & management skills required of middle level leaders.

Specific themes include:

- Organizational vision & culture
- Communication
- Ethics
- Promoting change & improvement
- Mentoring standards-based instruction & Master Scheduling

The ACSA Middle Level Leaders Academy provides the application of theory & best practices for site leaders. The sessions feature educational administration experts & experienced practicing school principals.

The academy offers 70 hours of instruction over seven weekend sessions Friday evenings 5:00 – 9:00 p.m. and Saturdays 8:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

*The intensive course syllabus & materials provided to participate are exceptional resources for ongoing reference & career planning.

Please note that Saturday hours for this academy may vary.
