POST PANDEMIC MOVING FORWARD IN CURRICULUM:

What to Cut, Keep or Create

HEIDI HAYES JACOBS IS FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT OF CURRICULUM DESIGNERS PROVIDING PROFESSIONAL SERVICES TO SCHOOLS, ORGANIZATIONS AND AGENCIES TO CREATE MODERN LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS, UPGRADE CURRICULUM AND SUPPORT TEACHING STRATEGIES TO MEET THE NEEDS OF CONTEMPORARY LEARNERS. HER MODELS ON CURRICULUM MAPPING AND CURRICULUM DESIGN HAVE BEEN FEATURED IN NUMEROUS BOOKS AND SOFTWARE SOLUTIONS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. SHE HAS TAUGHT COURSES AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY'S TEACHERS COLLEGE IN NEW YORK CITY SINCE 1981.

In this interactive session, Dr. Jacobs will provide guidance and strategies for our schools to consider as we make choices in two areas:

- Curriculum Design Choices: How do we know what to cut out? Cut back on? Consolidate? Keep? Create?
- Structural Design Choices: How can we adapt our structural formats of schedule, space, grouping of students, and use of personnel in response to what our students need most?

Participants will leave with resources, templates, and tools to assist in making strategic plans to best respond to our learners and move forward to fresh possibilities as we look ahead to post-pandemic school life.
