

ABOUT ACSA...

The Association of California School Administrators was established in 1971 and is the largest umbrella organization for school leaders in the nation serving more than 16,000 school leaders.

ACSA is the driving force for an equitable, world-class education system, and the development and support of inspired educational leaders who meet the diverse needs of all California students.

ACSA has a significant role in steering the course for improvements and progress in public education and for school administration. ACSA leads advocacy efforts focusing on school finance, program flexibility, curriculum and instruction, assessment and accountability, and efforts to close the achievement gap.

ACSA is the leading proponent in the state for our profession and its leaders. ACSA led the effort to adopt California Professional Standards for Education leaders and offers exceptional professional learning programs.

ACSA's core purpose is to preserve and improve the quality of life through public education.
