Courageous and Effective Leadership

We Are ACSA

As leaders we join ACSA for many reasons: the community of leaders, learning in new ways, advice from legal representatives, service through charter, region and state opportunities and legislative support. Each of us represents diverse reasons why ACSA is at the core of our administrative journeys. I am pleased to start the year as President of Region 7, I joined ACSA for professional development, and I stayed in ACSA because of the caliber and community of the leaders I have met along the way! What is your story?

It's not a question of IF you will need a network of support during your professional career but a matter of WHEN you will need it. ACSA's professional learning opportunities, networking and legal support are just some of the great benefits to this AWESOME organization. Having an ACSA family that supports and advocates for kids and takes care of their own is something I will always be part of. –Veronica Miranda

Building Leadership Capacity

What fond memories I have of the opportunities afforded me through various ACSA training. One nugget learned at the 2012 ACSA Summer Institute for new principals was to find my “principal person.” So, I say to all of you, reach out to another person who has the same or similar job as you, develop a partnership with them that is built on confidential trust. As a new principal, I found my person and we learned to work out various struggles over the years to improve both our attitude and our skill as administrators. Now as an Assistant Superintendent in HR, I not only have my person, but I also reach out to new administrators as a trusted advisor. Wherever you are in your career journey, I challenge you to be both the leader and the learner.

Recognition

Understanding how the brain works is imperative to leadership, we all know about a fixed vs. a growth mindset, and neuroscience tells us that humans naturally have a negativity bias. In order to improve this bias one must become curious about the self-doubt or anxiety that comes and instead gently move towards thoughts of gratitude, this, in turn, produces new positive neural pathways in the brain. One way to garner positive thinking is through recognition, so let's celebrate a couple of recent Region 7 award winners who will be honored at the Leadership Summit, Nov. 2-4, 2023:

Nate Diamantine, ACSA state award winner, Elementary Co-Administrator of the Year, Assistant Principal, Patricia Kay Beaver Leadership Magnet, Ceres USD

Cayla Alvarez, ACSA Region 7 representative to the state for Every Student Succeeding, Senior at Mountain House High School, San Joaquin Charter.

I am truly excited about the opportunity to connect and explore potential collaborations or partnerships with you, please do not hesitate to contact me if you are ready to serve in ACSA, Region 7. I believe that together we can achieve great things. I look forward to working together and contributing to shared success for ACSA, Region 7. Thank you for your support, I am enthusiastic to embark on this rewarding journey with you.

Sincerely,

Deborah Rowe

REGION 7 COMMITTEES/COUNCILS

2023-2024

(Three-year terms for Chairs, except for Legislative Policy)

Region committees/councils serve to provide a "Grass Roots" contact for ACSA members. Chairpersons of most region committees/councils serve on corresponding state committees/councils, for three-year terms. The Region President and President-Elect are ex-officio members of all committees/councils.

The chairperson of each committee/council (except Awards, Conference and Newsletter) is the region's representative to the state committee. Region 7 council/committee representatives are responsible for getting minutes/information from their state meetings to the charter job-alike representatives in each charter. If a job-alike representative for the charter is not listed in the directory (vacant) please forward your minutes/information to each charter president. If you are a charter job-alike representative, you are responsible for disseminating state council/committee minutes to members in your charter.

If you are interested in being considered for appointment to a state committee/council, contact the region president or the committee/council chair by December of each year.
