Dr. Iyanna Pease provided an update on the ACSA Equity Resource Library, a digital repository of comprehensive tools, guides, and resources to empower ACSA members in fostering inclusive and equitable school environments across the state. The library is aligned with the Social Justice standards and includes links to books, articles, and other resources. The Equity committee provided feedback to the ACSA Equity Resource Library that included the integration of the ACSA equity definition and providing access to the library via the ACSA website to all people. The goal is to unveil the ACSA Equity Resource Library at the ACSA Equity Institute taking place at the Omni Los Angeles Hotel at the California Plaza from April 3rd-April 5th. The deadline for proposals for the ACSA Equity Institute is February 29th. The ACSA Equity Committee also decided to submit a proposal to present the ACSA Equity Action Tool at the upcoming Equity Institute. The ACSA Equity Committee nominated Dr. Dwight Rogers as the Legislative Policy Committee liaison. The Legislative Policy Committee members guide the Governmental Relations team on legislative issues that are of interest to the association and serve as a conduit between their region and state ACSA on legislative issues. The ACSA Equity Committee is also planning to update their website with current committee members' names, emails, and pictures. Dr. Patricia Brent-Sanco asked for submissions for EdCal's Equity Corner articles. Lastly, the committee reviewed upcoming events and opportunities for professional development related to equity.
